

QUALITY CATEGORY RULES

The quality categories for the Printweek Awards 2022 are:

- RECONFIGURED Bespoke Digital Printer of the Year
- NEW Bespoke Publications Printer of the Year
- Book Printer of the Year
- RECONFIGURED High-volume Digital Printer of the Year
- Label Printer of the Year
- NEW Packaging Printer of the Year
- Post-press Company of the Year
- NEW Wide-format Printer of the Year

1. All entrants must be registered companies in the UK.
2. Entries must be commercial production runs and must have been printed or produced since 1 July 2019 (the period has been extended for the 2022 Awards due to the impact of the Coronavirus pandemic).
3. The entering companies must have been trading solvently since 1 July 2019
4. Please supply only the number of samples requested, four different samples.
5. Confidentiality: all material will remain confidential to the judges, but winning case studies may be written up and published in Printweek based on the material provided. However, entrants can mark sensitive information in their entries 'Not for publication' – but these sections must be very clearly marked or highlighted in the submission.
6. Please submit your 250-word summary for each of the four samples submitted in separate documents. Please do not add your company name or logo on the documents.
7. Please Note: Entries without a 250 summary for each of the four samples may be marked down or disqualified.
8. You may enter as many different categories as you wish, however, you may only enter the same category once.
9. Samples entered into any one of the Quality categories may also be entered into the Innovation of the Year category, but please note there are differing entry requirements.
10. All entries into the Quality Award categories must be commercial jobs. A business cannot enter self-promotional work. Samples produced purely to promote the print business's own products or services will be disqualified and the entry marked down.
11. Any entry that does not comply with any of the category criteria may be disqualified and the entry fee will not be refunded.
12. The judging panel chair's decision is final and while feedback will be given if possible when requested, discussions regarding results and individual scores will not be entered into.
